

House Resolution No. 398

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge special events experienced by Show-Me State residents who have been blessed by exceptionally long and productive lives; and

Whereas, born on February 14, 1915, in Tyler into the family of Emery Lee Morgan and Hattie Blanche Shinaberry Morgan, Geraldine Brown will celebrate her Ninetieth Birthday with a gathering of family members and friends at Reelfoot Lake, Tennessee, on February 12, 2005; and

Whereas, after an enjoyable childhood filled with all types of educational and rewarding activities, the former Geraldine Morgan established a family of her own through her joyful marriage to Eugene Brown who loved and cherished her with all of his heart; and

Whereas, the marital union of Geraldine and Eugene Brown has been blessed with two wonderful children, Emery Eugene Brown and Carolyn Sue Robertson, and five grandchildren; and

Whereas, a vibrant part of the twenty-first century, Geraldine Brown enjoys a life which encompassed most of the twentieth century with its first flights by heavier-than-air craft, worldwide turmoil associated with World War I and World War II, rise of the automobile as America's preferred mode of travel, demise of the Soviet Union as the Cold War drew to a close, and shift from a primarily agricultural economy to one dependent upon industry and then upon the service and information sectors; and

Whereas, a homemaker who ensured her house was a warm and inviting place for all, Geraldine Brown has been a member of First Baptist Church in Caruthersville for fifty years; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives pauses to commemorate momentous events in the lives of such stellar citizens as Geraldine Brown:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the joyous arrival of the Ninetieth Birthday of Geraldine Brown and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon attaining such a rare milestone in life and our best wishes for many more celebratory events in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Geraldine Brown of Caruthersville, Missouri.
